IMPORTANT HUD ANNOUNCEMENT

TRACS 202C and iMAX Releases have been rescheduled

At an industry meeting held 15 May 2008, HUD agreed to modify the dates for the TRACS 202C and iMAX implementation. The reason for the change is a projected delay in getting OMB approval for the new certification and voucher forms.

The new schedule has TRACS 202C and iMAX going live on October 13 (instead of August 8). The end of the transition is scheduled for January 30 (instead of November 21).

During the transition, TRACS files may be sent in either 202B or 202C format, and by either TRACSMail or iMAX. After January 30, 2009, only 202C files sent via iMAX will be accepted.
